Wood for Winter 2009

It's that time of year again, where the weather is getting colder in Romania and the families that the charity Networks supports are in great need. If you would like to support Wood for Winter, please give any money to Phil Turner (the Treasurer of Project Agape).

If you let me know you have donated, (not the amount) I will make a gift card which you may give to friends or family in lieu of a gift. The last date for your donation so the money can be sent is Sunday 6th December. (Some of the money may be used for food parcels where necessary) along to the Adult Literacy Class ? We are now getting up to 10 attending on a regular basis.

We have also started to run Basic Computer you would like to get involved, or would like to

THE THREE KINGS CHRISTMAS PLAY

Whilst many of you are involved with the Choral production this year, some of you who enjoyed acting in His Last Days have stepped up to the challenge of doing both. This play, whilst being an evening of hilarity, is also an evangelistic outreach and as such is aimed at the unsaved.

This is an event you can invite anyone to who would go to see a Panto or an evening of comedy and as yet does not know the Lord Jesus.

We are still needing more cast in order to honour the Lord. This does not necessitate much learning as the spoken parts are mostly covered. If anyone can see their way clear to filling in the slots, we would be very grateful.

We need one more King. One traffic warden (the words can be written on her clipboard), one seer, some traders and crowd.

We also need as many chiffon scarves as possible (one's you'll recognise afterwards for their return).

As this is not just entertainment (but those who come have a great time) could you please pray about it, as it could be the means of salvation for some who wouldn't come to a serious production in a church.

We also aim to do plays throughout the year in Newbold and on demand. Probably the next one will be Easter.

Many thanks, Annette.

P.S. I apologise to all those who may be offended that we held one rehearsal on a Housegroup night. This was not intentional but to accommodate those who could not come on a Thursday, we had to have the one Tuesday evening.

We will try to find times that fit with most people without impinging on long term meetings in the coming weeks.

Tentatively, the play will be held on Monday the 28th of December at 7.30 as it is felt that with Christmas over, and Boxing Day spent relaxing, it may be a good time for people to have something they can invite others to. They won't regret it.
